THE DEPARTMENT OF LIQUOR LICENSES AND CONTROL SPECIAL EVENT PLANNING GUIDE

This special event planning guide will help you comply with Arizona's liquor laws during your special event.

If you will furnish, sell or serve liquor at your special event, be sure to apply for the required liquor license(s) 60 days in advance of the event date. The liquor licensing process includes a special event license issued by the state and, in many cases, a second license required by the city or town where your event will take place.

The most common special event applications issued by the state are:

- 1) Special Event Liquor License; and
- 2) Temporary Extension of Premises Permit.

To determine which application you need, match your circumstances with the following criteria:

Special Event Liquor License

- a) you are one of the following types of organization:
charitable, civic, religious, fraternal, political party, ballot measure or campaign committee
- b) you have a non-profit/I.R.S. Tax Exempt Number,
- c) your guests will be asked or required to pay, donate, or exchange money during the course of the event (includes fees for admission, auction, raffle, food, etc.),
- d) you are selling, serving, or furnishing liquor you have purchased from someone other than the liquor licensed venue where your event will be held,
- e) you require a temporary liquor license lasting 10 days or less

Temporary Extension of Premises Permit

- a) your event will be held at an liquor licensed establishment,
- b) you wish to temporarily extend the area of where liquor is served, beyond the boundaries described on the active liquor license on file with the Department.

To apply for a Temporary Extension of Premises Permit

If your special event will be held using an active Arizona liquor license and you wish to temporarily extend the area where alcohol is served beyond the boundaries described in the liquor license on file with the Department, follow this process:

- 1) Pick up an application for a Temporary Extension of Premises Permit from the state Department of Liquor Licenses and Control:

- 3) Time is critical, so complete the application early and follow all instructions for the state and the city, town or county where your event will take place – in most cases you will need two licenses; one license issued by the state and a second license issued by the city, town or county. Some cities, towns and counties may require up to 60 days advance notice of event. The Department of Liquor Licenses and Control will process approximately 1,350 special event liquor licenses this year. Please help us help you by planning as far in advance as possible.
- 4) Apply for the licensing required by the city, town or county, where the special event is to take place.
- 5) Immediately, upon approval of both state and city, town or county applications, follow instructions to receive your licenses.

There is no cost for a Temporary Extension of Premises Permit.
