ACTION ITEM

2. Discussion and possible action to adopt Resolution No. 2019R-29 approving the repeal of the publicity pamphlet submission charge of $100. (City Manager Cotter)

City Manager Cotter said there have been recent discussions regarding the upcoming ballot initiative for Prop 415, and said the city would be publishing a publicity pamphlet about the ballot measure. He said citizens, both for and against, were asking that the $100 argument fee be waived. He said the publication would include the first 50 "For" arguments and the first 50 "Against" arguments. He said all of the arguments received would be posted electronically for public view on the city's website.

City Clerk Stein discussed the parameters of the argument submission process.

MOTION: Vice Mayor Wegmann made a motion to adopt Resolution No. 2019-29 repealing the requirement for payment of a fee for argument submission; limiting the number of arguments to be published in a publicity pamphlet to not more than 50 "For" and 50 "Against;" and requiring that all arguments in excess of 50 be posted electronically on the city's website. Council Member Ring seconded the motion.

VOTE: AYES: Brady, Bruck, D'Amico, Ring, Shutts, Wegmann NAYS: None
